PRINCIPAL'S / SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL REPORT

Plainview Elementary School has experienced much growth during the 2000-2001 school year. Our students performed well academically and artistically. We are very proud of the following accomplishments.

- * We maintained accreditation with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools as well as with the State.
- * We initiated a Junior Beta Club with 12 new members.
- * 100 percent of the First Graders scored ready on the CSAB.
- * Seven students attended the Summer Gifted and Talented Art and Music Program.
- * Two girls were selected for the Summer Leadership Institute at Columbia College.
- * Every child in school made significant gains in the CCC lab.
- * A student won the Governor's Poster Contest at the District Level.
- * A Pre-school disability class was begun at our school.
- * The percentage of students scoring "basic" or above on the 2000 PACT rose from 59.3% to 63.2% in math and 59.3% to 70.4% in English/Language Arts.
- * Over 51% of the students maintained at least a "B" average for the school year.
- * Teachers and aides in the autistic class were trained and certified in Applied Behavior Therapy and Sign Language.
- * We were awarded and implemented a $6,000 grant.
- * Staff development included training in Thinking Maps, brain compatible practices, reading strategies and PowerPoint presentations.
- * Teachers actively attended conferences and district professional committees.
- * We held a Science Fair and Family Math Night.

The PTO is enthusiastically involved in providing enriched experiences for out students. Fund-raising activities have led to the purchasing of murals throughout the halls, cafeteria and media center. Instructional materials, a new TV for every classroom, and a school marquee have also been purchased.

Plainview Elementary is the heart of this small rural community. The people use the facility for meetings, sports events, and voting. When school functions are held, the community comes out in overwhelming support. This pride is exhibited in the fact this school has won the Clean Schools District Award since it was started.
